System Architecture Design
Code Clinic Booking System

This document outlines the structural design of the Code Clinic Booking System, defining how the system is organized and how its major components interact to fulfill functional requirements.

